

Louis Vanaria Bio

Louis Vanaria began his acting career directed by Robert DeNiro in the film, A "Bronx Tale" as "Crazy Mario". Since then, he has appeared on such television shows as "Law & Order", "Persons of Interest", "Blue Bloods", "NYPD Blue" and more recently as Dino Cervelli on HBO's "The Duce" opposite James Franco. He will be appearing as "David Ferrie" in Martin Scorsese's film "The Irishmen" and after 25 years will appear with Mr. DeNiro in this epic film. Louis has 2 original CD's and has been singing since he can remember. He has appeared opposite many stars, including Frank Sinatra and Olympia Dukakis in the film, "Young At Heart" and opened for Connie Francis and Jay Leno to name a few! Louis and his band perform favorite Italian American tunes as well as jazz standards and contemporary, fun dance music.